

Union County endorses NJ for HAITI Earthquake Relief Effort

The Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders announced their support for local agencies in their efforts to provide relief to the citizens of Haiti, and will be working with NJ For Haiti in this effort, Freeholder Chairman Daniel P. Sullivan announced.

New Jersey for Haiti is a collection of government agencies, non-profit organizations, faith-based agencies, businesses, and citizens dedicated to providing relief and assistance in coordinating the outpouring of support that citizens of New Jersey have offered to the victims of this disaster

How can you help?

The easiest/quickest way to assist is through your financial support. United Way of Greater Union County has established the NJ4HAITI Fund which will be used to support relief and rebuilding efforts.
